Hillside 35

Crest Façade

The Hillside 35 reimagines acreage living with a design that feels as expansive as the landscape beyond it.

Purposefully shaped around a central living heart, the home creates a natural connection between the kitchen, dining, living and generous outdoor entertaining area, with considered sightlines extending to the pool. From the heart of the home and private master retreat, the pool becomes a beautiful focal point while offering the practical peace of keeping the kids within view. Four private bedroom retreats each feature a walk-in robe, with the master and guest suites enjoying their own ensuites. A dedicated media room, study and substantial walk-in pantry add considered functionality.

If you're looking for your dream acreage home, Hillside 35 is a must-see—a bold new benchmark in purposeful acreage design, where every detail has been considered to make the most of space, privacy, connection and the landscape.
