Designed to give every family member room to live their own way, the Oakridge 34 MR brings together considered spaces and effortless functionality across two levels. Open-plan living, a dedicated home office, and a front leisure room downstairs create space to connect or unwind, while upstairs offers four bedrooms, each with a walk-in robe, plus a second living area and an additional powder room. A privately positioned master suite and generous outdoor living area complete a home designed for relaxed Queensland living.
